Pre-Quiz Outcome 1 – ANSWER KEY

1. The word “decubitus” means lying (down/supine/prone).
2. A radiographic (projection/position/view) describes the path of the x-ray beam.
3. For a posteroanterior projection of the chest, the patient would be facing (towards/away from) the detector.
4. A patient positioned in an RAO would have their (right/left) shoulder in contact with the table.
5. The knee is (proximal/distal) to the ankle.
6. The shoulders are (distal/lateral) to the sternum.
7. The lungs are contained within the (pleural/peritoneal) cavities.
8. The abdominal cavity is physically separated from the pelvic cavity (true/false)
9. The peritoneal membrane is a (serous/mucous) membrane.
10. The left iliac region is inferior to the left hypochondriac region (true/false)